

Multimillion-pound competition drives cutting-edge innovation in rail industry

Modernising track and train will help improve the passenger experience, while supporting jobs, growth and homes in Britain.