

National plan to halve rough sleeping and prevent homelessness

The National Plan to End Homelessness has been launched today, and will support the most vulnerable people in our society.