

National security update

The Home Secretary updated on government action to counter state threats following the charging of three Iranian nationals under the National Security Act 2023.