

Natural England marks the 250th anniversary of Constable's birth

The best locations for 300 hectares of new woodland identified. Hedgerow restoration supports rare species like hazel dormice, turtle doves and barn owls