

Nearly £10million provided in rates assistance

The number of pensioners and households receiving assistance with their rates has increased in the past year with nearly £10million awarded in rates assistance.