

New £300-million contract paves the way for Veterans UK digital transformation

The way many of Veterans UK services are delivered is to be digitised as part of a new contract worth £300-million that successfully commenced on 1 June 2020.