

New action to tackle illegal and exploitative children's homes

Up to 200 places will be created for vulnerable children in council-run high-quality children's homes with £53 million