

New animal medicine adverse event reporting service launching May 2026

The new adverse event reporting service from the VMD will replace the previous suspended service.