

New boost to defence victim support and prevention to raise standards across the Armed Forces

More than half a million pounds is being committed to expand the Victim Witness Care Unit to support around 100 additional cases each year and specialist Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG) teams set to be deployed to C...