

New Commissioner to champion tenant farmers across England

Alan Laidlaw, an experienced CEO with more than 25 years' experience in agriculture and land management, has been appointed to the new role.