

New EU-funded research to focus on best practice for subsurface projects

A three-year international project (SECURe – Subsurface Evaluation of CCS and Unconventional Risks) focusing on best practice for developers engaged in subsurface energy projects is under way with dedicated funding from the European Union.