

New Executive Chair to strengthen government's plan to unleash life sciences for a healthier, wealthier Britain

Steve Bates OBE appointed to help champion research and innovation and the use of technology to transform health and grow the UK economy.