

New figures show thousands more homes delivered across the country as Homes England exceeds targets

The government's housing and regeneration agency beat three key targets for 2024/25 during a pivotal time for housebuilding in England