

New flood scheme to protect homes next to the River Teme in Worcester

The Environment Agency is designing a new flood risk management scheme for a residential area of Worcester to protect homes from flooding.