

New funding boost to protect England's iconic peatlands

£47 million new government funding to protect and improve peat will reduce carbon emissions, support nature recovery and boost rural economy