

New grant helps woodland owners stay ahead of the eight-toothed spruce bark beetle

The Spruce Site Assessment grant will help woodland owners to evaluate their spruce trees, estimate felling costs and plan for early removal before potential infestations of Ips typographus.