

New laws to crackdown on harmful pornography

Possessing or publishing pornography depicting incest or adults pretending to be children to be criminalised and tech execs could be held liable.