

New measures protect UK's £88M optical fibre cables industry

The Government has accepted the TRA's recommendations to impose anti-dumping and countervailing measures on imports of optical fibre cables from China.