

New milestone achieved on Stallingborough flood defences

The third year of construction on an Environment Agency flood defence scheme has been completed, resulting in 2300 properties being better protected.