

New National Day for Victims and Survivors of Terrorism

Government delivers on promise to honour victims and survivors of terrorism by establishing a new annual national day, with inaugural day on 21 August 2026.