

New Solicitor General appointed

News story

Lucy Frazer QC MP has been appointed as Solicitor General

The Prime Minister has appointed the Lucy Frazer QC MP as Solicitor General. Commenting on her appointment, Lucy Frazer said:

I am very pleased to be appointed as Solicitor General for England and Wales. I look forward to working with the new Attorney General, Michael Ellis, on making law and politics work together at the heart of the UK constitution.

Published 2 March 2021