

New stations, faster journeys and better connections as works begin to restore Portishead line for the first time in 60 years

With services due to begin in 2028, passengers will be able to travel directly between Portishead and Bristol Temple Meads in around 25 minutes.