

News story: Emergency pesticide authorisation approved to protect national sugar beet crop

National sugar beet crop could face serious losses due to risk from aphids – more than 50% of UK sugar comes from domestic production