

News story: #GlobalStDavids

Wales flag

On 1 March, we will celebrate St David's Day by bringing to life the brilliant and far-reaching work done internationally by Welsh people and anyone connected to Wales, through content shared on Twitter and Facebook and using #GlobalStDavids.

Staff in the UK Government's international embassies together with our armed forces and humanitarian workers will be part of this global celebration and we'd love you to join in.

Get involved

Tell the world about someone inspirational working abroad this St David's Day or if you are Welsh or have a connection to Wales and you are overseas tell us what you are doing.

If you are an employer, tweet a thank you message to your staff abroad.

Here are some examples to get you started.

- Thank you to [someone you want to celebrate] who is spending #StDavidsDay [how they are spending St David's Day] #GlobalStDavids @UKGovWales
- This #StDavidsDay we're celebrating Wales's impact across the world & all our staff who are part of it. #GlobalStDavids @UKGovWales
- This #StDavidsDay I'm in [place/country], where I'm [what you do and who you work for]. #GlobalStDavids @UKGovWales
- To all our Welsh staff, thank you for the brilliant work you do across the world. #GlobalStDavids @UKGovWales

Share content:

We will be posting lots of content on the day itself; follow us and join in at:

Facebook Twitter

Published 26 February 2018