

News story: National award showcases Cumbria as key player in the North

A team from Cumbria has won a national award for creating a “powerful movement” to improve gender balance in the region.