

News story: New Chinook simulators ready for training

A new, purpose built facility replicating real-life operations for Chinook helicopter crews with the very latest technology has been officially opened today.