

News story: Tackling productivity problems in UK industry: apply for funding

A share of £4 million is available for businesses to connect with the UK's best scientists and facilities to improve productivity and competitiveness.