

NHS recovery continues with above target productivity growth

Thanks to the government's reforms, record capital investment and the hard work of NHS staff, the NHS continues to outperform its productivity target of 2%.