

North East England set for billions in investment and thousands of jobs as UK and US ink tech partnership

The government has announced the creation of an AI Growth Zone in the North East, set to generate more than 5,000 new jobs and attract up to £30 billion in private investment.