

North East of England to benefit from recent trade deals

Top job creators in the North East of England's automotive industry are set to benefit from new trade deals with India and the US that slashes tariffs and boosts access to the world's fastest growing economy.