

NPIS reports significant increase in nitrous oxide-related activities

The latest annual report from the National Poisons Information Service (NPIS) shows a marked increase in activity related to nitrous oxide and ketamine.