

Ofsted sets out measures to ensure steady and assured start to inspections under the renewed framework

Ofsted has today announced several measures to reassure education providers about the November roll-out of inspections under the renewed inspection framework.