

Online GP appointment requests available everywhere from today

From today, patients will be able to request appointments online throughout the day rather than calling their surgery or visiting in person.