

Open consultation: Environment: developing environmental principles and accountability

We want to know what you think about plans to create a new independent environmental watchdog. What functions and powers should the watchdog have to oversee environmental law and policy?

We're also seeking views on what environmental principles we should apply in England to guide and shape environmental law and policy making.