

Operator revoked and faces disqualification after repeated failures to engage with regulator

A Hampshire-based goods vehicle operator has had its operator's licence revoked after Traffic Commissioner Miles Dorrington found that the company repeatedly failed to engage with both the Traffic Commissioner and the Office...