

Operator's licence revoked after serious maintenance and safety failures

A West Midlands goods vehicle operator has had its licence revoked and a company director disqualified following a public inquiry.