COVID-19

Information updates from Councillors Craig Duncan and Fraser Macpherson

Further update – for Sunday 19th April – from Councillor Fraser Macpherson (West End) and Councillor Craig Duncan (Broughty Ferry)

FURLOUGH SCHEME EXTENDED

The Job Retention Scheme is being extended by one month to reflect continuing social distancing measures.

<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/chancellor-extends-furlough-scheme-to-end-of-june>

GET EMERGENCY CARE

The number of people attending Emergency Departments has dropped. Some seriously unwell patients are delaying coming to hospital or dialling 999. If you need help don't wait.

MEDICINES

The advice is to please follow your normal repeat prescription ordering pattern and only order the medicines you need as there are no issues with the supply of medicines so there is no reason to stockpile.

Due to significant demand being placed on local pharmacies, some will close for short periods, or operate reduced opening hours. NHS Inform has a complete list of local pharmacies at:

<https://www.nhsinform.scot/scotlands-service-directory/pharmacies>

Prescriptions may take longer to process because of the additional workload on pharmacies.

PETS

New advice relating to owners of pets, companion animals and livestock who may be required to self-isolate as part of government advice on coronavirus (COVID-19) is available

Latest update during the COVID-19 emergency

Further update – for Friday 17th April – from Councillors Fraser Macpherson (West End) and Craig Duncan (Broughty Ferry)

NEW SUPPORT FOR BUSINESS

Around £220 million of further grants are being made available for businesses.

The Scottish Government measures include £120 million to extend the Small Business Grant scheme to ensure that, in addition to a 100% grant on the first property, small business rate payers will be eligible to a 75% grant on all subsequent properties.

A £100 million fund is also being made available to protect self-employed people and viable micro and SME businesses. This fund will be channelled through local authorities and enterprise agencies to target newly self-employed people and businesses who are ineligible for other Scottish Government or UK Government schemes.

Applications will be open by the end of the month, and the new arrangements for the Small Business Grant will be in place to receive applications on 5 May.

SUMMARY OF CORONAVIRUS (SCOTLAND) ACT 2020

A summary of the key measures contained within the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020 which came into force on Tuesday, 7 April can be accessed at <https://www.gov.scot/publications/coronavirus-covid-19-guidance-for-stakeholders-on-the-coronavirus-scotland-act-2020/>. The guidance for is primarily for central and local government and public bodies but will be of interest to a wider audience too.

STUDENT DECISIONS

Prospective university and college students are being reassured that they will receive their results on time, and universities and colleges will assess those qualifications as part of the admissions process. Universities are also being urged to observe a moratorium on changing offers made to undergraduate students. The UCAS May deadlines are being extended by two weeks to give students more time to make decisions about their future.

MENTAL HEALTH SUPPORT

After Willie Rennie MSP asked the First Minister to increase mental health support during the pandemic, we are pleased that new support is now available. It includes an investment of more than £1 million towards the expansion of the Distress Brief Intervention (DBI) programme to help people in distress. People who are in distress but do not need clinical intervention will be referred to the DBI programme by frontline staff, including NHS 24.

DONATE PPE

Medical Supply Drive UK (Scotland) is a voluntary organisation started by medics and medical students to free up dormant supplies of PPE for front line health workers. Local man Michael Farrell is volunteering for them. Do you have Personal Protective Equipment that you could donate to frontline NHS staff?

CORONAVIRUS TESTING CAPACITY CALL

The UK government is requesting industry involvement in the manufacture of Coronavirus testing capacity and testing kits. Dundee and Angus Chamber of Commerce is kindly amongst those spreading the word with its members and sharing the specification criteria. Businesses who meet this specification should review the guidance on helping the government increase testing capacity and register at <https://www.gov.uk/coronavirus-support-from-business>.

COVID-19 – BUSINESS HUB

Alison Henderson, Chief Executive of Dundee and Angus Chamber of Commerce advises – “The Dundee & Angus Chamber of Commerce Covid-19 Hub is an information & signposting service for ANY business looking to understand how the current situation impacts them, their staff and their future. At this time, we make no distinction between a member or non-member business looking for our support. To get our business and communities through this crisis will mean a partnership approach and there is no wrong door to helping a business access the support they need, or to see them survive. There of course remain many membership services that are only accessible to our members and we will continue to use every avenue at our disposal to maintain our strong community and to be a trusted partner to businesses across Dundee & Angus. Please call us on 01382 228545 if we can help.”

Cycles for Key Workers

Sustrans has launched ‘Cycles for Key Workers’, a single online map helping key workers find free and discounted cycles, equipment, and bike-sharing schemes as well as repair and maintenance services in their local area.

Sustrans is calling on the cycling industry, local authorities and professional bodies representing an occupation that the government has defined as key, to get involved and support the campaign to help key workers travel safely during the crisis.

The online map is accessible at <https://www.sustrans.org.uk/campaigns/cycles-for-key-workers/>

Latest Friends of Wighton update!

From Sheena Wellington :

Hello everyone, I hope you are fit and well!

We can't invite you to the Wighton at the moment but we can invite you to enjoy the music some of our friends are providing online

First up, the great Thursday evening session at the Fisherman's Tavern, Broughty Ferry, has gone digital and international. It can be enjoyed at your leisure so catch it here.

And from our PhD student Mary-Jannet Leith and partner Thomas Allery :

"#Ensemble Hesperis at Home – LIVE lunchtime concert series every Friday!
Having mainly figured out how to live stream, Tom and I will be giving a live concert every Friday lunchtime at 1pm from our little West London living room. Having reviewed the various options for platforms, we have decided to go 'live' on Facebook, rather than Twitter as previously advertised.

As far as we understand, you don't need to have a Facebook account to watch – just head to here and we should, fingers crossed, be there.

We'll be performing for about half an hour, and chatting a bit about what we're up to, so please join us – it would be great to see you! There will be some Scottish Baroque, Handel, Fontana, Geminiani, Sammartini and some live chat if that turns out to be possible."

Hands Up for Trad are also trialling a Hands Up for Trad Afternoon Show which goes out twice a week live on their Facebook page with live interviews and videos. If you can't make it along at 2pm you can always watch later!

In May Feis Rois are having a virtual festival here.

Enjoy, keep safe and we'll see you sometime!
