

“Our most important duty is to keep the public safe”: Benn announces £4m to support PSNI following public disorder

The UK Government has today announced a £4 million financial intervention in response to last week's public disorder.