

Over 350 threatened species to benefit from record investment

130 projects encompassing 364 threatened species to receive funding of £60 million from Natural England's Species Recovery Programme