

Over £7.4 million put back in working people's pockets by employers

Employers who have left workers over £7.4 million out of pocket by failing to pay the National Living and National Minimum Wage named.