

Passengers save millions as rail fare freeze starts

Government freezes rail fares, saving passengers £600 million and easing cost-of-living pressures as it rebuilds a better, more reliable railway.