

Patient safety boost as PA review recommendations accepted

The review looked into the safety of the roles of physician associates (PAs) and anaesthesia associates (AAs) and how they support wider health teams