

People across the country set to benefit from £4 million boost to improve accessibility and increase access to arts and culture

Funding available to support regional museums and galleries to ensure collections are more accessible to the public