

Photographer jailed after sexually assaulting two models

A man who sexually assaulted two men has had his suspended sentence quashed and has been jailed after the Solicitor General intervened