

PM: Barrow a blueprint for positive impact of defence spending across the country

Barrow is a blueprint for how defence spending can boost communities up and down the country, the Prime Minister will say while on a visit to the town today.