

PM launches new drive to tackle barriers faced by disabled people

Injustices faced by disabled people in the workplace, at home and in the community will be tackled head-on through a new package of measures ordered by the Prime Minister.