

PM to showcase how economic plan and trade deals deliver for working people

The Prime Minister is hosting a reception in Downing Street today (Monday 18 May), bringing together employers, workers and apprentices to demonstrate how strengthening Britain's ties abroad is delivering for working people ...