

PM vows to tear up “status quo” that failed young people on apprenticeships and skills

The Prime Minister will meet with apprentices to underline the Government's drive to overhaul the apprenticeship system, break down barriers to opportunity for young people and ensure the economy works for people in every pa...