

Policy paper: Calstock flood defence improvement scheme

Updated: Latest update section added, with feedback from the November drop in sessions.

The existing flood embankment provides an important role in reducing flood risk in Calstock, but surveys have shown it is in a poor condition. Therefore, the Environment Agency is exploring options to develop an affordable scheme to continue the standard of flood protection to properties within Calstock.