

Policy paper: Government response to the Office for Environmental Protection's review of implementation of the Bathing Water Regulations in England

Provides the government response to the recommendations in the Office for Environmental Protection's review of implementation of the Bathing Water Regulations in England.